County Designates $21,500 For Land Purchase

County expenditures totaling $21,500 are scheduled for the Sierra Madre area during the current fiscal year of 1962-63 from the County general and special district funds, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli announced today.

"This amount represents a total of project appropriations for building, park, road, and flood control purposes which will be expended by County government in the community during the current fiscal year," Bonelli pointed out.

The projects appearing in the County general budget approved in June are all within the framework of the County general tax rate of $2.0818 per $100 of assessed valuation set by the Board of Supervisors last Tuesday (August 28), Bonelli added. The budgeted capital outlay projects are as follows: $21,500 for land acquisition and plan preparation for future fire station in the vicinity of Foothill Ave. and Grand View Ave. This is the corner of the city spreading ground.

A threatened 12-cent boost in the tax rate for general county purposes was headed off in June by Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli, who won support of his Board colleagues in trimming some Concert Friday Evening 8 P.M.

A beardless version of the Mitch Miller Show will be offered in this Friday night's "Concert Under the Stars" at 8 o'clock in Memorial Park.

Music will be passed out at the concert for those who wish to participate in the "Sing Along" that night.

With the conclusion of this program will come the conclusion of the Recreation Commission sponsored summer evening concerts, it was reported by the Commission Director, Thomas Butch.

Butch also reported that the Commission is authorizing a letter to be sent to Director Ross Davis "expressing satisfaction and pride for having him as band director."

Butch went on to say that he feels Davis' "time and interest, along with others of the Sierra Madre Concert Band has made it (the concert program) the success that it is."

Mr. Butch said he also would like to "thank all the citizens who came to enjoy the programs."

He reports that plans are in the air for a winter concert series.

Twelve in One Announced

The twelve agencies of the one Sierra Madre Community Chest are Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, YMCA, Nursery School, Toy Loan, Children's Hospital, Orthopedic Hospital, Visiting Nurse, Family Service, Travelers Aid and USO.

The twelve solicitations are united into one United Way Drive which means the greatest number of dollars with the greatest economy of effort and the least expenditure for expenses.

"I would say this is twelve begs in one ask it," says Campaign Chairman Lucy Young, "except that 'beg' is a misnomer; I prefer to call the donations an investment in our community welfare and happiness."

While no one gave the correct answers, there were many 12 in one answers and the 12-year-old boy who on Friday, Aug. 16, listed the many 12 in one expressions will receive a prize if he reports back to the News office.

Some way his name has been lost and we would like to find him. More next issue of the News. Watch for more information.

Patrol winners for the most fish were Neil Olden-burg from the "2" Patrol, Mike Passage from the Black Panther Patrol, Don Plum from the Raccoon Patrol and Randy Dren from the Golden Eagle Patrol.

Prizes were neckerchief slides, which had a fishhook and Scout insignia embedded in plastic, made by Troop members.

Steve Kromka got the "booby prize for fishing the most time without catching any fish."

Another highlight was the rock hunting in which the boys had "good results in finding arrowheads."

In the advancement program, four completed second-class requirements and 13 completed first-class requirements.

Those on the trip included Junior Assistant Scoutmasters Mike Tyler and Charlie Kissenger, Senior Patrol Leader Bob Carrier and John Gendron "who handled the program."

Patrols on the trip were: Black Panther Patrol—Leader Richard Mays, Jack Duffy, Tom Hazelhurst, Robert Gendron, Mark Sullivan and Mike Passage.

"2" Patrol—Patrol Leader Tyler, Ralph Kammeren, Steve Mays, Neil Olden-burg and Steve Taylor.

Bond Issue To Be $100,000 For $175,000 of Work

General Tax Rate Increased .239 Cents Per $100 Valuation

In what could be termed as one of the most important Council meeting of the year session with all councilmen tax rate for the coming year, passed resolutions to raise the necessary monies to operate the City, and authorized the City to spend $177,000 for Flood Control, if and when it is approved by the voters in a General Obligation Bond Election called for November 6, 1962.

Daniels Permit
Over one hour was spent in the arguments pro and con on the application of Victor Daniels for fill work on his property. The Council gave permission for a permit, with several conditions, which could or could not be satisfactory to the applicant. Property owners were present and voiced their approval of the application and gave Mr. Daniels high praise for former work he has done toward saving much damage to Sierra Madre property during flooding conditions.

New Valuation
The Council was informed that the new Valuation figure for the city showed an increase of $711,825 over the previous year, being tabulated at $16,448,460, this figure being the figure that is to be used to raise the necessary amounts of money to run the city government.

Budget Adopted
After months of work trimming the proposed budget was submitted to the City Council which included the 20 cents per $100 levy for Flood Control. The entire amount of the General tax levy was set at $1.771 per $100 valuation or an increase of but .239 cents over the previous two years. The Budget was adopted as the permanent workable budget for the 62-63 year.

$291,294 Needed
A resolution was then adopted to send the necessary documents to the taxing division of the county to raise $291,294, this being the difference between the anticipated revenues and the anticipated expenditures for the year 62-63.

A resolution was then adopted setting the salary rate for city employees and making the effective date as of August 1, 1962.

Cost $177,000
The proposed General Obligation Bond Issue for Flood Control then came up for discussion, and as explained by the City Administrator the anticipated work

Of High Importance To Every Citizen

Fire Picture To Be Shown Thursday, Sept. 6

The local Fire Department is sponsoring a very interesting movie and program on Thursday, September 6, at 8 p.m., Sierra Madre School Auditorium, Highland and Auburn Avenues.

With the current fire season upon us at this time, and recognizing the dangers of the brush-covered lands along the northern boundaries of the city, the topic of the movie is on the Bel Air holocaust of last November, graphically illustrating what can happen when a major fire hits a densely populated area, where hundreds of homes are at the mercy of the flames.

The city of Sierra Madre has an area in the upper part of town that is similar in nature to the Bel Air area, and we should recognize the fact that a fire could happen here, in the Canyon Area. Our own fire of last October 30 came close to many homes, which were fortunately spared. But, the next one could wipe out the many homes in the canyon before being brought under control.

The movie and program are not intended to frighten the citizens of this town but rather to make them aware of the possibilities of a fire, and more important — what we can do to help prevent this happening here.

The homes along the brushlands were recently mailed some literature on the planting of ground covers for erosion control and of a fire-retardant plants to be grown around a dwelling to help protect it. This subject will be discussed further.

The Fire Chief and Fire Marshal, along with some of the firemen, will be on hand to answer questions that might arise concerning this current program of fire-prevention awareness for the townspeople.

The Fire Department is asking each one of you, as individuals, or officers in an organization, to please pass this information along to your group, or neighbors. The program will be free of charge, and it is guaranteed that it will be a worthwhile evening for you and your neighbors.

As part of the program on the evening of the movies on the Bel Air fire, Fire Chief Charles Brown is planning an added feature of the program by demonstrating the new radio system of the fire department that is used to alert all the firemen in their homes. People have asked why the fire horn just sounds three blasts now, so

Lee Shippey Writes On White House

Jaqueline Kennedy has made the public feel, as never before, that the White House is a public institution much more than it is a private dwelling, with the result that it is becoming one of Washington's most popular tourist attractions. And one possibly salutary but somewhat painful and embarrassing effect is that a great many persons whose pride in our military history has made them close their eyes to certain shortcomings are being reminded of things they would prefer forgetting, or having others forget. But the public prints, reflecting this greatly accelerated public interest, keep calling them to mind.

For example, I have just read "When They Burned the White House" by Andrew Tulley. It is rather habitual with us to think a 100 per cent American should be convinced that our military leaders, in all our wars, were habitual dashing heroes if not demigods, Benedict Arnold being the one exception. But Tulley, who has standing as an historian, asserts that American Secretary of War Armstrong and American Commanding General Win-

Few Openings

Ascension School Opens September 13

The Ascension Parish School, kindergarten through Grade 8, will re-open Thursday morning, September 13, following a meeting of the staff on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Enrollment in most groups has been closed since early summer, but owing to unexpected removals of families from the area, there are now a few openings in the kindergarten, Grades 2, 5, 6 and 7.

The Reverend Harley G. Smith Jr., rector of the Ascension Church, will take the opening service on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Sister Noel, principal of the school, and Sister Elizabeth, Superior of the group of Sisters in Sierra Madre, returned recently from the triennial meeting of the General Chapter of the Community of St. Mary, held in Peekskill, N.Y., and Sister Virginia Constance and Sister Mary Paula from visits to the convent in Kenosha, Wis. Due to ill health, Sister Mary Clare, librarian and organist for the school, has retired. Sister Mary Letitia, whose home was in San Diego before she entered the community, is coming to the school and will arrive early in September.

The Reverend James Miller, who came to Ascension last fall as Curate, will continue the classes in Religious Education for Grades 5 and 7. Mrs. Lucille Poggenpohl, who has been with the school for eight years as teacher in Grades 3 and 4, has resigned from this position but will continue as an additional teacher for

If the City Council continues to have budget and Flood Control hearings and the Planning Commission to hold 44-lot subdivision hearings, Missy Fish and myself are going to make formal application to the group for the "Peanut and Popcorn" concessions.

—CT—

Both of us saw a great potential going to waste at the last council meeting and the same was true at the Planning Commission meeting. Peanuts, popcorn, cold soda pop and maybe a hot dog or two would have gone over with a bang at those meetings, and maybe we could have come up with some financial assistance to the budget. Who knows?

—CT—

Here is a cute little story that I picked up from a mid-west town newspaper . . . the editor of the newspaper swears that it is true, but even though it might be fiction it is a whole of a story . . . the teacher asked the children to write an essay on "cats" and this is the essay turned in by a 10 year old girl.

—CT—

"Cats and people are funny animals. Cats have four paws but only one ma. People have forefathers and only one mother; when a cat smells a rat, he gets excited, so do people." "Cats carry tails, also. All cats have fur coats. Some people have fur coats and the ones who don't have fur coats say catty things about the ones who do have them."—end of essay.

—CT—

I had quite a nice long conversation the other night with a young lady that was doing some research work for a Los Angeles Television station . . . I have a hunch she was doing some work for herself also, but I did not let her get that far — — her punch question when you answered the phone was "I am from television station bla bla. Tell me to whom are you listening to at the moment?" . . . being rather quick on the ball . . . and at the same time feeling that something further was surely to come up . . . I gave her the answer, "my wife" . . . she became quite jovial and after her laughter subsided, she said that out of 1000 phone calls during the past couple weeks, she had received the same answer from 80 percent of the men who answered the phone . . .

The most deadly hours on streets and highways are from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. according to figures released by the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council. The next most dangerous period is from 1 a.m. to 6 a.m.

Southland art enthusiasts will have their first opportunity to see works from the internationally celebrated collection of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Heller in an exhibition opening at the Los Angeles County Museum next Thursday (September 6). Scheduled to continue through October 14, the exhibition will be previewed on Wednesday evening (September 5) beginning at 8 o'clock at a reception for the members of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

Experience tends to give men the poise and stability that indicates strength and maturity.

The cost of living is so high today that it takes a raft of money just to keep afloat.

A warning to exercise special care in weekend driving has been issued by the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council. A national survey shows that Saturday and Sunday are the most deadly days of the week on the highways.

'YOUR CITY AND MINE'

A CITY COUNCIL MEETING
Returning again to the operation of your city, we will follow today the matter of how an item gets onto a City Council Agenda and how it is handled once it is on the Agenda.

The City Council Agenda is broken into six general categories:

1. PUBLIC HEARINGS. These are all the items of business on which by law notice must be given in the newspaper. Zone changes, assessment districts, weed abatement are examples.
2. PUBLIC LETTERS AND PETITIONS. Included would be written requests for council action on a specific problem such as trash collection, requests to use the streets for parades, a policy on starting sewer districts.
3. ADMINISTRATIVE ITEMS. These constitute the items of day by day operation of the city. Acceptance of completed contracts, authorizing expenditures, notices of meetings, appointment of personnel.
4. COUNCIL REPORT AND RESOLUTIONS. The various Councilmen here report on the items which they have under study, committees they are working with or subjects which have been brought to their attention between meetings. The commercial district study, senior citizens committee, request for investigation of a dangerous condition.
5. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS. At this time new subjects of interest to members of the audience are initiated and oral requests for information are received.

To become specific, three items which appeared before the City Council on July 24th will be followed.

A letter was received on July 16 regarding unsightly trash conditions on certain properties in the city. The area mentioned was reviewed by the City Administrator, Police Dept. and Health Dept. and it was the consensus that there was no health menace or violation of city laws but that it was unsightly and detrimental to the community. Additional driving around the city indicated that it wasn't an isolated instance.

A report on the letter and general city wide conditions was prepared for the City Council. The letter was placed on the agenda in category 2. After discussion, the City Council requested that the newspapers give publicity to the problem of cleanliness and trash handling and the Council be kept informed of progress.

On July 19 the contractor doing the street improvement on North Sunnyside notified the City that his contract was completed. The City Engineer and Construction Inspector reviewed the work and agreed that the work was done in accordance with the contract. The exact cost of the work was calculated and a warrant to pay the contractor prepared. The report of the City Engineer was placed on the agenda under category 3. The City Council accepted the work, authorized notice of completion filed on the job, the amount due paid, and the contractor released from further liability.

For several months the City through the Planning Commission and City Council has been studying possible solutions for adequate driveways to apartment houses. The Planning Commission has studied the problem and sent in its recommendation and the engineering department furnished the addresses of apartment houses that would demonstrate various problems and possibilities. Under Council Reports and Resolutions, the Council held a general discussion of the effect of requiring wider driveways. Since Sierra Madre has considerable undeveloped apartment property, the City Council decided to

Hermit of The Sierra Madre

By Don Murray

"Any moment now," said the Hermit, as we enjoyed the trout dinner from his own pool and garden, "I expect a national movement honoring Hitler, Tojo, Stalin, Mao and Khrushchev." I grinned, "With maybe Pat Brown heading it up?" "No, the Kennedys are keeping Pat's foot out of his mouth these days as they use him to try to abort Dick Nixon's political life in the womb of this California gubernatorial acclamation. No, the Americans who might innocently honor the villains I named are those who vote for the economy 'thinking' and dead-end spending programs first foisted upon us by Roosevelt's Brain Trusters — and now palping us again via Kennedy's New Frontiersmen." I had to tell him I didn't get the connection. He forked another golden crisp rainbow trout, baked potato and green salad onto my plate.

"Roosevelt didn't end the Depression, Tojo and Hitler — admittedly provoked, though perhaps a mite too soon — forced us into a gigantic public works and public welfare program called 'The War Effort.' It plunged us into awesome debt while supplying the greatest economic stimulus in our history. Overnight we all had jobs and money to spend. At World War II's end — a starved consumer goods demand kept the factories whirling. Then it was Korea and the war Truman wouldn't let us win. When this economic 'fix' began wearing off—Mao and Khrushchev were still there to hypo us again by shelling Matsu and Quemoy, rattling bombs and shoe-pounding a U.N. desk. So that we remain fairly 'high' on another series of shots called 'The Defense Effort' augmented by a race to the moon. The point is: we can't retain our individual liberties and the Republic that guarantees them — if we have to pay the huge debts forced on us by our enemies plus the huge debts that would be forced upon us by our friendly New Frontiersmen. Both stimulate us into identical forms of economic darkness with a horrible hangover to follow. We've got to take the cure. Every time a candidate pops up with another surefire program to make life easier for us while adding to the damage Tojo, Hitler, Stalin, Mao and Khrushchev have done to us — we hadn't ought to honor him with a ballot. We ought to slug him over his well-meaning head with it."

Careless Walking Takes Toll
Careless walking takes a heavy toll in deaths and injuries in the United States. Based on a 12-month tabulation, the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council reports 7,600 pedestrians were killed, 255,500 injured. Of the 7,600 killed, 2820 were jaywalkers.

A city exists to serve the people and the City Council acting at their meetings is the body authorized to furnish such service. By sending your inquiries in, in writing, your problem comes to the attention of your City Council and as rapidly as possible your inquiry will be handled.

Next week: The Organization of the City Administration.

The last lines of The Star Spangled Banner are:

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, 'In God Is Our Trust!'
And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Remember, we have people in the world today who are working hard to change these immortal words to:
Then negotiate we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "No God Is A Must!"
And the United Nation's banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the Red and the home of the slave!

Sierra Madre Library Adds Science Books

Thermionuclear research, electronics and astrophysics are some of the many topics treated in the new INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY OF PHYSICS AND ELECTRONICS.

This unique dictionary is one of the many science reference books recently donated to the Sierra Madre Library by the Friends of the Library.

The new 6th edition of the world-famous "C.C.D."—THE CONDENSED CHEMICAL DICTIONARY—is another purchase of the group. It contains not only all varieties of chemicals but official pharmaceuticals and drugs. Shipping instructions as well as safety regulations are included.

Gray's ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES covers everything from Abiogenesis to Zoogeography. Over 800 articles have been contributed by outstanding experts from more than 30 countries.

Illustrations as well as tables, charts and lists contribute to the excellence of the PUTNAM MEDICAL DICTIONARY published in 1961. Communicable disease charts, Dietary Lists and Tables, and a List of Immunizations for International Travel illustrate the valuable and practical type of information in this dictionary.

THE RARE METALS HANDBOOK, second edition, provides information on structural materials and 55 of the less common metals. The articles are profusely illustrated by photographs, charts and diagrams, and each one contains additional references.

If financial terms and transactions ever confuse you, the Prentice-Hall ENCYCLOPEDIA OF BUSINESS FINANCE will be most helpful. The explanations are non-technical, easy to read, and well illustrated. "How-to-do-it" material is included to enable the reader to gain practical experience.

A PATENT MANUAL FOR SCIENTISTS AND ENGINEERS also is included in the new group of reference books. It is designed to make scientists and engineers "patent-minded" which is demanded in today's technical world.

Each year the Friends of the Library make it possible to add to the reference collection in many different subject fields.

MEETING DATE CHANGED

Because schedule upsetting caused by Labor Day, the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will meet next Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. at the Headliner Coffee Shop. Originally the meetings are held on Tuesday.

Registration Drive In Full

More than 4200 Deputy Registrar of Voters, largest number in county history, are now stationed throughout Los Angeles County as a part of the "Register to Vote Month" drive launched last month by the County Board of Supervisors.

The massive registration campaign started when the Board adopted a motion introduced by Supervisors Chairman Ernest E. Debs declaring the period August 13 through September 13 as "Register to Vote Month" in Los Angeles County.

The local program is part of a statewide effort to urge eligible voters to register in time to vote in the November general election.

The all-time high for Los Angeles County was 3,011,379 registered during the November 1960 presidential election. As of August 15, there were 2,813,486 registered voters in the County.

Bonelli urged all eligible citizens to register as early as possible. September 13 is the last day on which any person may register to vote in the November 6 general election.

There are 12 registration points in Sierra Madre, names and locations are:

Mrs. E. M. Drobek, 612 N. Auburn Ave.; K. M. Seegmiller, 181 E. Grand View Ave.; Mrs. N. C. Seegmiller, 181 E. Grand View Ave.; Mrs. B. Thew, 70 Windsor Lane; Miss D. A. Thill, 55 W. Sierra Madre; Mrs. L. M. Warfel, 55 W. Sierra Madre; Miss M. S. Kay, 846 Canyon Crest Dr.; J. L. Rogers, 550 Oakdale Dr.; Mrs. D. C. DeWeese, 480 N. Lima St.; Mrs. M. B. Moyer, 46 N. Mountain Trail; D. P. Foote, 276 Santa Anita Ct.; Mrs. L. S. Eaton, 145 E. Alegria Ave.

Dog License Past Due on August 31

A notice has been sent out to Sierra Madre residents by the Police Department announcing midnight, August 31, as the deadline to pay dog license fees without a penalty.

Without the delinquent payment penalty, which is a two-dollar addition to the regular fee, a dog license costs three dollars.

Besides paying the fee, a certificate showing the dog has had "a current rabies vaccination" must be presented.

The licenses may be obtained at the Police Department in the City Hall, 55 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

The notice also called attention to the "Leash Law" which makes it unlawful to allow a dog to run at large." It was stated that the Pasadena Humane Society "is under contract with the City of Sierra Madre to enforce this (leash) law, patrol the city, and impound animals found running at large."

VISITOR

J. M. "Shorty" Steinburger, a native son of Sierra Madre, who is here visiting his brother, Harvey, will leave for the World's Fair.

He resides in Phoenix, Ariz., but still visits Sierra Madre.

He is a former mayor of Sierra Madre.

An inter-club meeting of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club and the Glendora Kiwanis Club was held last Friday.

Both groups met at the Sierra Madre Post Office at 11:30 a.m.

Sierra-Hastings News

by

Joyce Wenger

SYcamore 8-4777

This seems to be one of those slow summer weeks that make news reporting especially difficult and thus an opportune time to write a little about the problem of news gathering.

Columnists on metropolitan dailies rarely know all the people they write about. Actually, there's an interesting chain of news sleuthing involved. It's relatively simple learning where from obliged matriarchs, ditto caterers, travel agents, hotel and resort PR's who regularly keep the society desks well informed.

However envious I might be of such professional assistance, such is not the lot of a community newspaper columnist—I'm happy to say I haven't had to query the local butcher on who might buy large quantities for a party or ask the service stations which family car is being readied for a trip. Will gladly confess however, that several local gals and one-time news huns, understand my problem and obligingly send me little news tips.

As the heading in this column indicates, I'm equally interested in both Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch news and would appreciate hearing from you. Naturally I like to think I have a nose for news—but the truth is, all writers and newspapers are dependent upon the cooperation of their readers!

Elopements are always fun to hear about — and here's one with an especially nice twist. Mrs. Lucile Moon and Mr. Ray Pleasant of Baldwin Park eloped to Las Vegas on August 14. The newly wed couple have been friends for 45 years, having met in Pomona before each was married for the first time. And were the bride's family surprised — indeed they were! The bride has been residing with her daughter, Marilyn Sullivan and family on Riviera Drive for several years. The surprise event took place while the Sullivan family were vacationing at Lake Tahoe. Young Jan Sullivan misses "Granny" who is now making her home in Baldwin Park.

Glad to see Marge Rowley looking hale and hearty again!

Catching up: Joan and Sam Mac Donald, who were so civic and socially active until they moved from Colony Drive a year ago, returned from Evanston for a visit in late July. Jimmie Tolfree invited Joan's former neighbors in for coffee. They included Kay Rule, Maureen Bell, Eleanor Barkley, JoAnne Williams, Hope Scott, Mary Kohler, Phyllis Jones, Betty Foxton, and Thelma Davis.

Kay and Ralph Rule have been going through what they term an "all-summer ordeal." Translation — they are building a new home on Manzanita! Although the building phase is nearly completed, weighty decisions remain as to upholstery, carpets, drapery, etc. Kay, new PTA proxy, is already juggling a few of these tasks into her busy schedule.

Our college bound young people will soon be off on a wonderful adventure — and we sincerely wish them well! Barbara Winslow just learned that fellow Sierra Madren Judy Young, an upper classman at University of Redlands, will be her "big sister" when she arrives on that campus next month. Ann Frederici will go East to her mother's alma mater, Wellesley, and her sister Judy to the Univ. of Colorado. Kathy Brown and Mary Cunningham will attend U.C. at Berkeley. Georgia Eastwood chose Santa Barbara, Leslie Lockard and Nancy Bridges, Pacific University. Pam Valois will study at Lewis and Clark in Portland, Dwight Espe at Univ. of Colorado at Boulder. Bruce Lindsay is off to his parent's alma mater, Linfield College, Oregon. Bob Snyder chose Colorado School of Mines and Art Azdair UCLA.

Sue Murphy and Pam Reddy will study under the special nursing program at PCC. Gloria Woodward, Betty Hunter, and Bill Stratton plan to attend PCC and then continue art studies at the Art Center, Los Angeles. Marie Warriner, Carol MacDonald, Jo Tavis, John Nardolillo, Leona Burnett, John Wallace, Linda Herold, Sheryl Bloss and Mary Brenner will also be on the PCC campus.

SANDRA LEE COWAN

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cowan Announce Engagement of Daughter Sandra Lee

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cowan of 805 Arbolada Dr., Arcadia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee, to Robert Wesley LaDamy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley LaDamy of 2810 Massachusetts Ave., Lemon Grove.

Falls Out Of Car

Eighty four year old Iris Valois fell out of a 1956 Packard Clipper driven by her husband, William Joseph Valois, by the intersection of Coburn and E. Montecito about 4:15 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Valois was hospitalized overnight, and her only reported injury was a swollen forehead. Police reports say that Mr. Valois was driving south on Coburn as he tried to apply the brakes, which failed. Attempting to stop by turning into the curb, he struck a "piece of sewer pipe and then turned into a side street," Mr. Valois said.

The car rolled back against the curbing and Mrs. Valois "fell out of the car and into the street."

Woman's Art Club To Hold Annual Exhibit

Las Artistas, a woman's art club, will have its annual exhibit in the Havenstrite Building, 811 West 7th St., Los Angeles for the month of September.

These are award pictures from the past season's shows. Among those exhibiting are: Carole Palmerston, South Pasadena; Madeleine Pichard, Sierra Madre; Dorothy Schmidt, Arcadia.

Tennis Match Set For Sun. September 2

Sunday at 9 a.m. has been scheduled as the date for the match to conclude Sierra Madre's 1962 Elimination Tournament. It was announced by Frank Green.

This match will place Larry Morse, last year's champion, against Stan Smith.

Smith, who was the victor at the last tennis court encounter with Morse, is favored to win this coming match, reports Green.

However, Green adds, Morse said he will not let "the odds" lean too heavily towards discouragement, but instead act more as an incentive to win.

Green stated the coming match promises to be tremendous. Both Morse and Smith, he continues, are very good athletes with "far above average athletic records."

Green also reported the club's results at the recent matches in the Monrovia Tournament.

Bob Victor and John Du Bois as well as Roy Toms and Pierre Panneder were defeated, the latter with a score of 6-2, 4-6, 8-6 and the former with a score of 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Larry Morse and Frank Green won in the quarter final doubles with a score of 6-2, 6-3.

Green was defeated in the semi-final singles and so was Morse.

The score for Morse was 6-3, 4-6, 7-5 and the score for Green was 6-2, 6-3.

There is no limit on the number of book covers students may request. The heavy duty covers will be given on a first come-first serve basis. The blue and gold textbook wrappers will be available beginning next week and as long as quantities last. Book covers should be requested by students or parents at any of the 77 Von's and Shopping Bag Food Stores.

Three hundred and fifty friends and relatives were invited to the 8 p.m. candle-light ceremony and reception which followed in the beautifully decorated church garden.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Henry Johnson of Sierra Madre and has lived in Sierra Madre most of her life.

The bride's floor length gown was a Cahill design fashioned of silk organza over peau de soie. The portrait neckline was edged with Belgium lace which also was used at the elbow length sleeves and around the bottom of her full overskirt. Her veil was of French silk illusion held by a pearl coronet, while her bouquet was a cascade of phalaenopsis and stephanotis.

The attendants wore turquoise sheaths of silk organza with draped backs and matching jeweled coronets. Their flowers were cascades of tangerine gladioli.

The flower girls were in white Italian embroidered organza sashed in turquoise. They wore coronets of white stephanotis and carried baskets of Paris orange rose buds.

After a honeymoon in San Francisco, they will return to Sierra Madre to live.

The article told how Western steel product fabricators are mounting a two-pronged attack aimed at discriminatory Western steel prices and unfair East-West freight rates. It indicated that the highest cost of steel in the West is stifling industrial growth, keeping industries from expanding and new industries from moving Westward.

"Western steel costs about a penny a pound more than east of the Rockies," said the article. "And rail and truck freight costs more to ship East than West, placing Western metalworking firms at a competitive disadvantage with other parts of the nation."

The article aroused considerable comment and it set off a series of favorable actions by steel-consuming groups, metals distributors and the press. Wood previously won Silver and Bronze medal awards in 1958, 1959 and 1960.

County Tax

$13 million from the County budget. At that time, it appeared the budget reduction would enable the Board of Supervisors to again "hold the line" on the tax rate.

County Chief Administrative Officer L. S. Hollinger, however, informed the Board today that failure of total assessed valuation to reach a hoped-for level of a 6.00 percent increase for the new year in large part resulted in the anticipated tax rate increase. A decrease in available surpluses also added to the need for the hike, he said.

The new rate, along with other sources of county revenue, will finance the current $604,309,876 county budget. In addition to the general appropriations, a $4,203,368 general reserve; and an estimated delinquency of $3,553,344 brought the total gross budget requirements to $612,066,588.

reading. Mrs. Pearl Shook, a graduate of Southwest Missouri State Teachers' College, with graduate work at Columbia University and Northwestern University, and with an excellent record as a teacher in the lower grades in Springfield, Mo., will take the regular classes for Grades 3 and 4. Aside from this there will be few changes in the staff.

Work on the school playground, begun last spring by the Parents' Club and the Vestry of the Church, is being completed. A third of the area has been covered with blacktop for games requiring smooth surface. Retaining walls along the north and west sides will eliminate much damage from run-off during rains, and add to the available playing surface by making the sloping grade unnecessary. Additional equipment, including a large swing given by the Classes of '62 and '63, and the relocation of much of the equipment, will add to the safety and usefulness of the grounds. A picnic and lunch area has been added at the east end of the grounds and is proving popular with various groups.

to be done was estimated at a cost of approximately $177,000 and included two major projects, that of the condition previously outlined on Sunnyside and the Skyland areas, other work to be done would be on Baldwin, Sierra Madre Blvd., the Business District, and Lima. That it was the opinion of the legal counsel that this work could be completed, should the voters of the City approve a General Obligation Bond for the amount of $100,000.

The difference in the two figures being made up in the .20 cent tax levy provided for in the 62-63 Budget, plus the robbing of the various funds previously discussed and outlined, during the 62-63 year.

On the Ballot

The necessary resolutions, ordinances and documents were then read and each approved whereby the General Obligation Bond issue of $100,000 will be put before the voters of the City at the general election to be held November 6, 1962. To pass it must be approved by two-thirds of the ballots cast.

Authorization

A resolution was also adopted authorizing the City to spend this amount of money if and when it becomes available. Further the date of September 19 was set as the deadline for the City Clerk to receive arguments for or against the proposed issue. At that time she will select one of each which will be presented and placed on the ballot.

Necessary legal publications and posting will be forthcoming for a complete study of the issue.

Other Business

Other business consisted of appointment of Councilman Abernethy to work with the Flag Pole Committee on details of the proposed flag pole. The setting of September 25 as the hearing date for Sewer District No. 74, the passing of Ordinances and resolution pertaining to several points of government operation. Accepting the appointments of Chief of Police McMillan, and passing resolutions, pertaining to the rulings of the Planning Commission at their August Meeting.

As stated above, this was one of the most important Council meetings of the year, but yet, it found very few people in attendance, either due to the Labor Day weekend in sight or the fact that it was realized that the various actions were fairly well "cut and dried" and very little could be accomplished at this meeting, which was the final meeting for the adoption of the budget and the placing of the Bond issue on the ballot.

Fire Picture

he is to present a practical demonstration of the workings of this system.

Also, if time permits, the Fire Marshal will present a second movie titled "Our Obligation," which is based on the fire tests made on the old Jefferson School in Los Angeles, from which the Los Angeles Fire Department made a story-sequence movie showing what can happen in a school fire. For the most part, this city's schools are fairly safe from fire . . . but the movie shows that a fire can start, even in a so-called "fire-proof" building.

The necessities of today were the luxuries of yesterday.

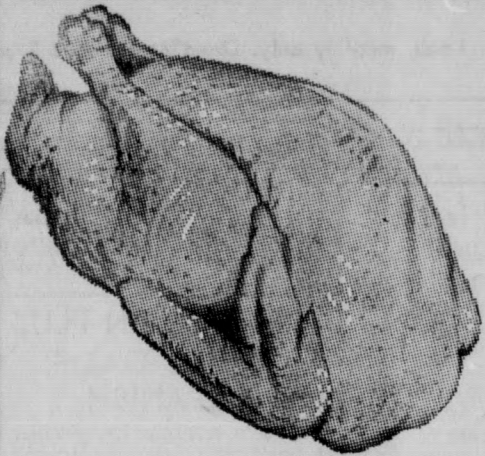

Don't take anything for granted — the other fellow doesn't.

Sierra Madre pupils will attend the John Muir junior high school this year the same as last, unless they wish to furnish their own transportation. The Pasadena school board will provide transportation to and from the John Muir school on the same terms as to the polytechnic high school, but will be unable to provide transportation to the John Marshall school, though there will be no objection to local students attending the latter school providing they have their own transportation, according to John F. West, superintendent of the Pasadena schools.

Sierra Madre patrons of the public library have borrowed 35,959 books during the last year, according to the report of Miss Julie Moore, librarian. This is the biggest year's reading in the history of the library which has now been in operation for nearly 40 years. The nearest approach to this figure was during the year 1923-24 during which period 32,323 books were borrowed, or 3,636 less than last year.

The City Council Tuesday acknowledged a letter from H. K. Pottenger, in which the Pacific Electric Cars were praised, and moved that a similar letter expressing these sentiments be drafted and forwarded to the PE Company and to the Public Utilities Commission.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

Quintus Fabius Maximus defeated Hannibal in 216 B.C. by delay, deception and camouflage. In 1884 a group in England chose the name Fabian because it best described their method to defeat Capitalism.

George Bernard Shaw, an avowed Fabian Socialist, stated bluntly: "Note, please, that we gave our society a name that could have occurred only to classically educated men." This cloak of respectability which has been bestowed upon the American variety of free enterprise made it possible for Fabian Socialist Joseph Pels, head of the Felis Naphtha enterprises in the United States, to make a loan to the Bolsheviks which was repaid officially through the Soviet government in 1921.

This same cloak of respectability is allowing agents of the Kremlin and fellow travelers to operate unmolested within the structure of our government and elsewhere by hiding behind "academic freedom," "peace at any price," "welfarism," and "religious liberalism."

The academic robes of Harvard have been filled since the turn of the century by an abundance of professors believing in the theories propounded by the offspring of Fabianism, namely Keynesism. At the present time such a Harvard Socialist, Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., is a top advisor to President Kennedy. The following words spoken by this presidential advisor should be memorized by every working man who feels the tug of Socialism: "The trade union movement is as clearly indigenous to the capitalistic system as the corporation itself and it has no particular meaning apart from that system. In a socialistic society its functions are radically transformed... unions inevitably become organs for disciplining the workers, not for representing them."

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. wrote the lead article in the Partisan Review, May-June 1947. This article was read into the Congressional record by Hon. John H. Rousset of California. The following are direct quotations from the Congressional record dated Sept. 25, 1961.

Mr. Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. stated: "Here, as elsewhere, the Marxists enormously overestimated the political courage and will of the capitalists. In fact, in the countries where capitalism really triumphed, it has yielded with far better grace (this is, displayed far more cowardice) than the Marxist scheme predicted."

Mr. Schlesinger continues, "... the next depression will certainly mean a vast expansion in Government ownership and control. The private owners will not only acquiesce in this, in characteristic capitalistic panic, they will demand it!" In describing Christianity's place in the realm of official liberalism, our Presidential advisor declares: "It (official liberalism) dispensed with the absurd Christian myths of sin and damnation and believed that what shortcomings man might have were to be redeemed not by Jesus on the cross, but by the benevolent unfolding of history. Tolerance, free inquiry, and technology, operating in the framework of human perfectibility would in the end create a heaven on earth, a goal accounted much more sensible and wholesome than a heaven in heaven." The Professor from Harvard has merely described a portion of the theory of dialectic materialism (Communism).

The intellectual advisor continues: "Moreover, workers as a mass have rarely had the impulses attributed to them by Marxism. They too often believe in patriotism or religion or read comic strips, go to movies, play slot machines and patronize taxi dance halls." Thus they are rarely swept by the proper mass emotions." In other words Mr. Schlesinger has as much contempt for the working man as he has for the employer. He feels that the only men capable of determining the future of America are the so called "intellectuals" in which group he places himself.

When Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.'s thoughts were placed in the Congressional Record, the President's advisor said: "I neither withdraw nor apologize for them."

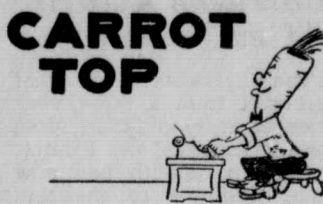

Another typical disciple of the socialist ideology is Roger Baldwin. He typifies liberal doctrines as the founder of the American Civil Liberties Union. This "liberal" group has as one of its many objectives, the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. A Veritas Foundation study of the Economics Department of Harvard describes Baldwin's methods of operation in its book, "Keynes at Harvard." It states on page 36: "Roger Baldwin (Harvard 1905)... outlined a Fabian (Socialist) device of capturing power by stealth and deception. In an advisory letter to a socialist agitator he wrote in part: 'Do steer away from making it look like a Socialist enterprise... We want also to look like patriots in everything we do. We want to get a good lot of flags, talk a good deal about the Constitution and what our forefathers wanted to make of this country, and to show that we are really the folks that really stand for the spirit of our institutions!'"

Roger Baldwin's methods are being utilized within the structure of our present government. Socialist-Collectivist ideas are based on man being controlled by the State. All "rights" and freedom are gifts of the State, as are all directives, all rewards and all punishments. The State is supreme and man is a contributor to the State. "State" can come in many forms — Feudalism, Monarchy, Dictatorship, Party Groups (as Communist Party), and other types of rule by those who feel their superior intellect entitles them to direct the activities of the common man.

Someone should tell Mr. Schlesinger that even a Harvard professor can be wrong. Phonies like Hitler and Mussolini, banked upon this theory of a lack of political courage and a display of cowardice on the part of Capitalistic America. Look what happened.

SEVEN'S 8V 3-1285

... the other twenty per cent were either doing the dishes or out working in the yard — what a world men, life is like that.

I was quite amused the other day by a news release from the White House where President Kennedy was calling attention to the narrow margin by which the Medicare bill was defeated. I wondered if he recalls the narrow margin by which he was elected also?

Well, here we are right on the brink of starting another school year. Seems as though it was just yesterday that we graduated those thousands, and was wondering where we would put them to work — now soon thousands more will start the long nine months to a completion this June — be extra careful about your driving, little ones are excited during the first days of school and need your help to see them safe to school and again safely home in the afternoon. School starts September 11.

Several of the boys from City Hall meet at the Claridon deli-lunch each afternoon for coffee and a bull session. Tom Butch, assistant to the City Administrator and Director of Recreation is the quiet one and it seems that this particular day he became tired of the boastful talks of the others. When there was a lull in the conversation he began:

"This morning I went to see a new piece of machinery we installed, and it's astonishing how it works."

"And how does it work?" asked one.

"Well," was the reply, "by means of a pedal attachment a fulcrum lever converts a vertical reciprocating motion into a circular movement. The Principal part of the machine is a huge disc, and work is done on the periphery, and the hardest steel by mere impact may be reduced to any shape."

"What is this wonderful machine?" chorused the crowd.

"A grindstone," replied Tom Butch.

Which is what I've gotta get back to... but before I go and in closing the column for this week, I want to be the first to tell you that, "In spite of what you have heard, what we have been going through it not a recession."

"It's a boom and somebody lowered it." And "the 10 per cent federal tax on air conditioners is the closest Uncle Sam has come yet to putting a tax on the air we breathe."

And lastly, "It's hard to know exactly when one generation ends and the other starts. But it's somewhere around 9 p.m."... further I might state... during these great perilous days, should you find that you need, and are looking for a helping hand... try the one at the end of your right arm. See you around I hope, I hope, I hope.

Editorially Speaking....

"Only fear the Lord, and serve Him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things He hath done for you." The Bible—I Samuel 12:24

A Spender -- Not An Earner

Henry J. Taylor, a thoughtful and forthright commentator on national and international affairs, and formerly our ambassador to Switzerland, writes: "If government spending and debt can create economic development and make us prosperous, why don't we just double the spending and double the debt and really 'get this country going'?"

"In simple truth, a government is only a spender, not an earner. It cannot create prosperity. It can only supply the conditions; the people must supply the prosperity. For anything politicians say they will give the people, they must first take away from the people. And if they seize so much in taxes that capital investment suffers or is discouraged ('What's the use?'), the jig is up."

Mr. Taylor, of course, is far from being alone in these views. They are being said, time and time again, in one way or another, by economists, business spokesmen, and some government officials. And their import is not confined to our domestic economic well-being. The failure of American industry to expand as anticipated affects, with the utmost directness, our ability to compete in a world which grows more drivingly competitive almost every day and, last but not least, our strength and resourcefulness in the cold war with Russia — a war whose primary weapons are now economic.

In this connection a recent piece by Joseph Alsop is significant. He cites economists whose specialty is communist affairs. According to them, the communist bloc is in deep trouble. The satellites are hungry and stagnant. Russia herself has failed to achieve the economic goals so confidently laid down by Khrushchev not long ago. Red China may be on the verge of a famine of fantastic dimensions, which could result in a crackup of the regime.

If this is all true, the West, and most particularly this country as leader of the West, is presented with a great opportunity. "But," Mr. Alsop writes, "the trouble is that at the very moment when the Communist form of society has begun to perform so badly, the vigor and economic health of the Western performance is also beginning to be called into question."

There are no pat, easy and simple solutions to the problem. But certain basic remedial actions are being emphasized more and more, not only in business but in official circles too. The most obvious is some degree of tax reduction — and especially tax reduction as it affects business — which would release needed funds for capital investment. Another is further liberalization of our depreciation laws as they apply to industrial plants and other productive facilities. In this, we are behind the other Western powers, which allow far greater tax credits in order to spur modernization and technological advances of every kind. Still another is to find ways and means by which our high-wage, high-cost industrial complex can compete with countries where wages and other essential costs are lower. And there is an intangible element in all this which numbers of observers constantly stress — that is, a "climate" which industry and capital will find friendly, helpful, and encouraging.

Finally, one thing can be added with certainty: if the desired goals are to be achieved, the very best efforts of all concerned — business, labor, government — must be applied to the task with wisdom, statesmanship and a sense of the long view.

Who's To Blame

David Lawrence writes, in U. S. News and World Report: "President Kennedy has made a serious mistake in declaring that the recent vote in the Senate against his medical-care plan should be made an issue in the coming congressional elections. For, it may be asked, which party will the President hold responsible for the defeat of his plan? Will it be the Republican Party, five of whose prominent members voted with the President? Will it be the Democratic Party, 21 of whose Senators voted against the President? Or will Mr. Kennedy campaign against both the Democratic and Republican Senators who did not vote with him and who are up for re-election?"

Giving Us the Ax

One of the most significant developments of this election year is the evidence of a growing uneasiness over what seems to be a persistent program of power grabbing by the Kennedy administration. This uneasiness is by no means confined to Republicans, although they quite naturally are making the loudest protests. The Democrats — and not only the party's conservative wing — are venting their displeasure chiefly through the painful means of opposition to administration legislative programs.

A very significant statement on this subject was made the other day by Republican Representative John Lindsay of New York. He said that a "strong feeling has been growing in Congress that the Kennedys are trying to shut off debate." He charged that they have made "basic grabs for power that are offensive to conservatives and liberals alike."

This should be cause for concern to thoughtful Americans of both parties. As former Secretary of War Elihu Root said on more than one occasion, presidential power is like a battle-axe, and "No man should swing a battle-axe as though it were a riding crop." The nation needs leadership in the White House, and the Constitution has provided the Chief Executive with ample powers. A President who does swing that power-axe like a riding crop too often, however, may well come a cropper, and bring the nation down with him.

Cartography is an exact science . . . and not for the likes of me. In a metropolitan area like L.A. where tracts are laid out according to the whimsy of individual developers, starting out to visit friends without a library of road maps is nothing short of folly. In my own case the idiosyncrasy extends even further. I am, so to speak, in the primer stage of map reading. To insure my safe arrival at any given point that isn't circled by my immediate neighborhood, my husband long ago discovered that "over-simplification" is the rule.

He carefully plots my course in the most direct route, drawing pictures of the streets, junctions, intersections and point of destination.

There are no marginal notations . . . just simple instructions marked within the boundaries of the proposed course. This keeps me from any temptation toward deviating from the charted line. With any luck at all I can zero in on the target with the comforting knowledge that to return home I need only to turn the map around and fly back.

There is only one problem in this operation. I enjoy returning the favor and directing him on short runs. Because he just doesn't understand what I tell him he tends to take a rather "owly" viewpoint and even blames me when he loses himself hopelessly. It is only my sunny disposition that has kept us from bloodshed, plus the fact that I know he needs someone to blame for his average margin of error.

Vacations continue to take top billing in the news as the hillites take their final flings before school starts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman and their son, Jim, and daughter, Crissy, returned last week from a two-week stay at the Feather River Inn. Their daily schedule included at least one of the following activities: golf, bridge, swimming, fishing, boating or riding, as well as perfectly gorgeous meals. They stopped en route to see their eldest son, Steve, who is taking some summer courses at the University of Cal at Berkeley.

The John Fricke family of Barhite spent their vacation at the family summer home on Catalina Island. In addition to their four children, Dana, Beryl, Ann and Mike, they entertained Kit Armstrong, Janet Price, Fred Harris and Harry Schultz during their stay.

The Villa Guild of Rosemary Cottage continues to work and play with equal zest. Their recent bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. Robert Anderson was preceded by a work meeting on the Christmas decorations. The ladies attending were Mrs. Norman White, Mrs. Edward Halperin, Mrs. O. Kenneth Fuller, Mrs. Ira Lackey, Mrs. Edwin Pyle and Mrs. Joseph Mangano.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller and their two children, Steve and Melissa, have had a variety of vacations this season. They started out on the 19th for a leisurely drive up Highway No. 1 to visit San Simeon Castle and then on to the Big Sur. Upon their return they boarded Dr. and Mrs. Jack Paschall's boat and cruised over to Catalina for a few days. They were joined over there by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phelps and their family.

The John Price family of Fairpoint took their two daughters, Kathy and Janet, for a week of fun at beautiful Lake Arrowhead.

More About Shippey

were so completely inadequate that a British force which could have been stopped many miles from Washington, by a superior and better armed American force, was allowed to proceed with practically no resistance except from 500 Marines and then so cowardly that when the British marched on Washington itself not a shot was fired by the fleeing American forces. The British captured and burned all public buildings including the White House, which Dolly Madison had tried so hard to make a true cultural center for our nation. That is why August, 1814, is a month we like to forget. But it does remind us that we, too have human failings.

Incidentally, the White had not been white before that. But only its walls were left standing, black from the burning, so they were painted white.

The British could have held Washington indefinitely, but Baltimore, a seaport, then was far more important — and the British thought the ruined capital would never be rebuilt . . . So, after a week or two, they sailed away to attack Baltimore, which was defended by Fort McHenry. The British had a new weapon called the rocket, which was so inaccurate it was soon discarded but which held all the mystery and terror for persons who did not know its failing that secret nuclear weapons do now. In the American force defending Baltimore was a young attorney named Francis Scott Key who had strongly opposed the war but had become a passionate supporter of the American cause. All day he watched the bombardment of the fort with anxiety and was up at dawn to see if our flag still flew, despite the rocket's red glare, and was inspired to write "The Star Spangled Banner." Fort McHenry drove the British off, but when the peace treaty was signed "Yankee Doodle" was played as our national anthem. "The Star Spangled Banner" was not officially made our national anthem until 1931.

Where Am I?

Seems some fisherman pulled an unconscious man from the water off Port Hyannis, Mass. the other day. After some artificial respiration he revived enough to sit up; looking all around and hearing a lot of loud talking and laughing, he asked, "Where am I — in heaven?" "No," his rescuers told him. "Then where is all that loud talking and laughing coming from?" "Oh that," answered the fishermen, "That's only the Kennedy Clan cooking up a little skull duggery for the G.O.P. next fall."

Get Out The Vote

A publicity campaign to convince citizens that they must vote in the November 6th Election will be conducted by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce, reports Junior Chamber President Edmond R. Davis.

The "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign includes six luncheons featuring candidates for the offices of U.S. Senator, Governor of California and California Attorney General, and a drive to reach Los Angeles voters through all possible means of communication.

The first phase of the "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign will attempt to reach voters who have not yet registered to vote in the November elections, and to make people aware of their duty to vote. Special attention will be given to first-time voters through schools and universities, and the Junior Chamber will cooperate with the Registrar of Voters to provide service to hospitals to ensure that patients are registered.

The Junior Chamber plans to arrange for posters on buses and trucks, billboards, announcements on radio, television, and in newspapers, reminding the public to register by September 16 and vote on November 6. A Miss

"Get-Out-the-Vote" will visit local colleges to tell first-time voters to exercise their rights.

Hassen Concert Huge Success

Many favorable comments were heard in response to the music from Art Hassen's flute during last Friday night's concert at the Ramon Lopez Galley, 47 E. Montecito.

Music played by Hassen was: Syrius by Debussy; Flower Show, an original Hassen composition; An Ancient Air by Tcheripin; Hungarian Pastoral by Doppler and arranged by Hassen; and Bach Sonata Presto.

Hassen reported that at his next concert he will play another of his compositions along with: three movements of a flute concerto by Hayden; a scene from the opera Orpheus by Gluck; and Bach Sonata.

He also reported that he is considering an addition of poem and song recitation to his Friday night programs.

New Service By L.A. County

As an added feature of its public information service, the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation today began a special recorded telephone service to acquaint the public with weather conditions at all beaches under the jurisdiction of the department.

County Supervisor Burton W. Chase, who represents the county's beach areas, announced the public may obtain this special weather information by dialing FR 4-4811.

The recorded voice will provide data on air and water temperatures; visibility in various cities along the coast; wind direction and velocity; surf conditions; direction of swells, and other information useful to swimmers, fishermen, surfers, SCUBA and skin divers; boaters and picnickers.

The service is maintained by the Lifeguard Division of the Department, which has headquarters at Redondo Beach.

The taped report is brought up to date every few hours.

Local Boy On Road To British N. Borneo

Dr. John Landgraf, professor of social anthropology at New York University and son of Amy Hickcox of 439 E. Highland in Sierra Madre, has left for British North Borneo to fill the position of director and coordinator in the Peace Corps.

Dr. Landgraf graduated from Pomona College in 1937 and has attended Columbia University where he received a master's degree and doctorate degree.

After serving three years in the Navy, he took a teaching position at N.Y.U.

Four years ago he took a sabbatical leave, went to Borneo, and lived with the natives there for a year.

This will be Landgraf's third trip to Borneo. His first one was when he was a youngster traveling with his parents.

This time his wife, Marion, will join him, and his oldest daughter, Leslie, 16, will go to a boarding school in Geneva, Switzerland. His youngest daughter, Carol, will go to a boarding school in the Philippines.

Dr. Landgraf, unlike other Peace Corps members who were trained at the University of Hawaii at Hilo, was trained in Washington, D.C.

Santa Anita Church Day School in 4th Year

The Santa Anita Church Day School, a non-denominational Christian day school, will enter its fourth year of operation when the children begin school September 11. Grades one through eight are included in the curriculum, which meets all the requirements of the California State Board of Education. Twenty is the maximum number of children in any room, making it possible to give each child individual attention and permitting the child to advance at his own rate. The school is non-graded to avoid children being labeled. It is staffed by teachers certificated by the State of California, or the equivalent.

In addition to the regular staff, Mrs. Ethel Sheldon, former director of the Sequoyah School in Pasadena, is curriculum consultant and also coordinator of field trips and testing. Her rich educational background, psychological training and counseling experience will serve the children in many ways. She will take a very active part in carrying out the school curriculum and activities.

Mr. John Fleming is Science Consultant. He is a graduate of Cal Tech and originator of the "New Elementary Science Charts" now being used nationally in public schools. These charts are invaluable to teachers in helping children take their places in the Space Age. His unusual ability to inspire and teach children opens the wonderful world of Science to them. Mr. Fleming also will do some of the science teaching.

To enrich and strengthen the children's love and understanding of the American Way of Life, Mrs. Betty Williams, attorney, will present to the seventh and eighth grades a special course in "American Legal Concepts."

Mrs. Nina Temchenko, a trained linguist, will return to the school as the teacher of Russian.

The children begin every day with prayer in the beautiful sanctuary of the church.

The spiritual training which is a vital part of this school gives the child an understanding of the Universal Laws of Life. It also, in a very powerful way, helps him become a well-balanced, spiritually and emotionally mature adult—who is able to express his higher self in everyday living.

Enrollment is open in some of the grades. Please call HI. 6-8206 for further information or if you would like a brochure mailed.

Services At Temple David

Rabbi Camillus Angel, D.D., will conduct the Sabbath Services at Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley, 9677 E. Longden Ave., Temple City, on Friday, August 31, at 8 p.m. His sermon topic will be "Justice, Justice Shall Thou Follow."

Mrs. Charles Lich of 710 Encino Dr., Arcadia, will be at the organ.

Mrs. Robert D. Solomon of 1428 Santa Margarita, Arcadia, will read the Invocation and recite the Blessing of the Lights. Dr. Solomon will read the Kiddish (Sanctification Prayer).

Immediately following the service there will be an Oneg Shabbat with Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Solomon, in honor of Dr. Solomon's birthday, acting as hosts.

The Temple is affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and has many fine services, among which are: The Religious School, one of the outstanding religious schools in the Southland, and the Youth Program, for all ages of Temple youth, under the direction of Mr. Irwin Kassapp of the Jewish Centers Association.

For the coming year, the Temple is having a concentrated membership drive and all interested parties are invited to contact the membership chairman, Mr. Hyman W. Fink, 215 E. Norman Ave., Arcadia, HI 6-5030.

Revised Schedule For Churches

Revised scheduled which will give visitors more opportunity to see the popular Wee Kirk o' the Heather and the Church of the Reformation at Forest Lawn were announced today by Frederick Llewellyn, executive vice president. All Forest Lawn churches are open to visitors from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. when not in use for services, and on Sundays.

In the future, Llewellyn said, the Wee Kirk will be reserved for visitation on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The church will be available for afternoon weddings on these days.

The Church of the Reformation and its unique Kipling Room will be open for public visits on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Largest of the three Forest Lawn churches, the Church of the Reformation often is the scene for celebrity funerals and services may disrupt the visiting schedule, Llewellyn said.

Besides the three churches at Glendale, Forest Lawn has the Church of the Hills, in Hollywood Hills, often called the "Longfellow" church. In the Longfellow Room off the foyer are many of the famous poet's original furnishings, and the room itself is a reproduction of his study.

Forest Lawn's fifth and newest church, located in Cypress, is known as the Church of Our Fathers, and is patterned after St. John's church in Richmond, Va., where Patrick Henry uttered his immortal "Give me liberty, or give me death."

Bethany Pastor Returns to Pulpit Sunday

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, will return to his pulpit this Sunday, September 2, after a month's absence. He and his family have been vacationing on the East Coast. While on vacation he ministered once at Dayton, Tenn., and then on August 12 he preached at Fourth Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Schaper begins his tenth year at Bethany Church. Prior to that he was associated in evangelistic work and as an instructor and Dean of Men for ten years with Bob Jones University. The church at Bethany has grown steadily under his leadership.

Mrs. Schaper has contributed greatly to the success and growth of the church while serving as Music Director. Her choirs have added much to the worship and evangelistic services of the church and in addition have been of immense educational value in music instruction at the children's level.

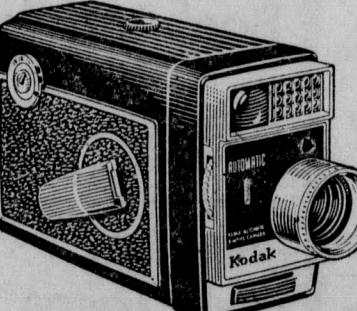

The services are held at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Sunday and 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday. The public is cordially invited to attend the services which are held in the sanctuary located at Baldwin and Montecito in Sierra Madre.

Dear Editor:

Once again politics and the very important matter of how to be an informed voter is coming up this fall. But things are no longer on the simple old basis of Democrats and Republicans. These are only fronts for voting purposes which have very little meaning. There is a different line-up today which crosses all regular party lines. Most of us can be classified into two major "actual" political groups: Liberals and Conservatives. There are Liberal Republicans and Conservative Democrats as well as Liberal Democrats and Conservative Republicans.

The old dictionary definitions are a little bit out of step with these terms as they should be understood by voters today. Briefly it amounts to this as many people see the current issues: Conservatives are afraid to trust our sworn enemies who have publicly boasted that time is on their side and that they will bury us — afraid to trust paper promises made by mass murderers who have always violated their most solemn agreements — afraid of uncontrolled spending that will mean ruin to any nation just as surely as it does to any family or any business organization — afraid of phony peace overtures that would weaken our military defenses and leave us wide open for atomic annihilation — afraid of the calculated drift of the UN toward a world government which would deprive us of our constitutional safeguards and our national sovereignty — afraid of a UN which lacks the guts (because its constitution parallels that of Soviet Russia) to kick out Communist Russia which has defaulted on its dues which are a requirement for retention of membership, while expecting American bond buyers and taxpayers to pick up the tab — afraid in fact of all the maneuvers to centralize control in every walk of life and step by step deprive us of the liberties which our forefathers bequeathed to us.

Conservatives just want to stay alive and avoid selling their children into a future of materialism, insolvency and slavery.

And who are the Liberals? They aren't afraid of anything! They are by dictionary definition 1. befitting a man of free birth; not restricted. (Perhaps such a man as F.D.R.) 2. Bestowing in a large and noble way, generous, bounteous; open handed. (Strangely though, it's the public funds that our liberals would bestow in a large and noble way, would be bounteous with everyone including the communists, open handed to all who look to Uncle Sam as rich uncle to the whole world.) 3. Bestowed in a large way, hence abundant; bountiful, ample. (Always enough for everyone at the public trough, but always with someone else's money.) 4. Free from restraint, unchecked, — (The last is not good taste to print here. Look it up for yourself. But free from restraint and unchecked should be strong enough to make the issue pretty clear to everyone.) But one more characteristic of the present-day Liberal really must not be overlooked: they are always for everything that centralizes more control and more power in Washington or any other central authority. This they all have in common regardless of what label they choose to wear whether in politics, economics or religion.

There is a lot more to be said on this subject but I hope this will set a few voters to thinking some pretty serious thoughts, between now and our next election.

—RALPH J. MARTIN

Dear Editor:

An open letter on the rail work rules dispute. Gentlemen:

We all agree on the need for prosperous railroads, able to offer job security to president and gandy dancer. It is only natural that there are honest differences of opinion about attaining this goal. The tragedy of railroading is the need to call on politicians to resolve these differences. A political solution invariably presents an empty half-shell each to management and labor, and the traffic kernel to subsidized competitors.

Legislated job security is false security. True security depends on revenue freight and passengers in cars more than on number of crewmen in the cab. Thousands of threatened railroad jobs can be saved only by the vote-power of labor double-headed with management against the medieval atrocity of so-called transportation policy.

As a labor-management team, railroads performed nobly in war and depression. As a house divided against itself, railroads face an open derail to extinction. I am confident that railroad men can rise above narrow group interest to resolve the work rules controversy.

SCHUMACHER

Dear Carrot Top:

Shame on you! Messing up the linotype operator's copy like that! She should turn you over his knee and spank you! Fifty years ago I worked for a man who liked to use AFFECT and EFFECT in his letters, but he didn't know "which was which." After trial and error, this is how I tried to solve the complexities of these pesky little words:

I use EFFECT if I can substitute any of the following: Result, accomplish, operation, influence (noun only), belongings, bring about. Also use EFFECT after TO and INTO. Examples: The effect (result) was remarkable. The bride effected (accomplished) a great improvement in her cooking. The rule went into effect (operation) yesterday. The minister's sermon had a profound effect (influence). His personal effects (belongings) were sold to pay expenses. The treatment is effecting (bringing about) a cure. When does it go into effect? I tried to effect a reconciliation but got kicked out.

Now as to AFFECT we all know there are two of these little meanies, each rating a listing in the dictionary. It appears that the plain old everyday AFFECT is a rather simple verb meaning INFLUENCE, CHANGE, TO STIR THE EMOTIONS . . . etc. If you're a psychologist you might have need to use the noun which I believe means something about an emotion, feeling, or mood as a factor in behavior. I never attempt to go that far out with the smart guys and gals.

Examples: The light alteration will not affect (change) the price. Her opinion will not be affected (influenced) by the lecture. The music affected her (stirred her emotions).

And, Carrot Top, wherever you are I'll find you and crack your knuckles with a ruler if you ever use EFFECT before a word that means a person. All the YOUS, MES, WES, THEYS, the JOHNS and the MARYS cannot be effected. But, oh brother, how we can be AFFECTED.

As to the other word with the split personality, AFFECT, AFFECTION . . . To like to have, use, wear, etc. . . also pretend, feign, etc. . . whatever. . . Examples: She affected goffy hats. He affected (pretended) indifference to the insult. She has affected manners.

Well, so long, Carrot Top. Now you behalf yourself and mind your EFs and AFs.

Dear Editor:

An open letter to the American Red Cross. Dear Members of the American Red Cross:

In a few lines we will try to express our gratitude and appreciation for the too often taken for granted services that you so unselfishly perform.

A short time ago our rescue team was called out to search for a missing hunter in the Figueroa Mountains, east of Solvang. The victim had been reported missing for some time. So with few provisions we started our journey for Figueroa Mountain. After hiking for hours in one hundred degree temperatures, we were relayed back to base camp. Hot, tired and hungry we were greeted by three representatives of the American Red Cross who presented each man with a more than generous lunch and plenty of icy cold lemonade. With plenty of nourishment we rested and then proceeded to search for the hunter.

Thanks again for a job well done.
